AT THE MUSEUM

Sunday, July 2: Beading Demonstration by the Bedazzled Beaders. See some of the creations by the beaders as they work their magic!

- Demonstration from noon until 2:00 p.m.
- Museum admission is free today!

Saturday, July 22: Clay Works:

First, check out the new exhibit in the Museum, Pottery from the Pueblos. Next, come try to make some of the designs that you saw in the exhibit on your own "pottery" to take home.

- Potter around anytime from 11:00 a.m. through 4:00 p.m.
- Pottery activities are free with museum admission!

Saturday, July 29: Family Workshop – Indian Toys and Tools, Part 1

Try out some of the toys and tools that the Serrano people used in their daily lives. Then you can make a reed doll, a rabbit stick, a walnut dice game, and a shell rattle to take home, while you hear more about the local Indians who used them. This Family Workshop is sponsored by the San Manuel Band of Mission Indians.

- Family workshop is 9:00 a.m. to 12:00 p.m.
- Cost is only $5.00 for an individual or $10.00 per family.
- Pre-registration and payment is required – Registration form is available on our website or in the Museum lobby.

Saturday, August 5: Moon Party: Come to the Museum's parking lot after dark to join the S.B. Valley Amateur Astronomers to look at our summer night sky. There will be telescopes set up for free viewing.

Saturday, Sept. 23: Family Workshop – Indian Toys and Tools, Part 2

Make a beautiful gourd rattle, your own cordage (rope), a stick counting game, a hoop and stick game, and grind corn with a real mano and metate, while you hear more about the local Indians who used these things. Workshop is from 9:00 a.m. to 12:00 noon. Cost is only $5.00 for an individual or $10.00 for a family. Pre-registration is required; registration form is available on-line or at the Museum.
